

Programme Outcome (PO) & Course Outcome (CO) of the Dept. of English,
Kamargaon College, Golaghat, Assam

Teachers and students of the department are fully aware of the UG English Programme Outcome (PO) and Course Outcome (CO) including Certificate and Diploma Course. Here is given a brief overview of the CO & PO:

- Before commencement of classes, students are imparted through induction and counselling regarding their chosen programme, selection of subject, semester system, Choice Based Credit System, etc.
- Students are imparted course outcomes regularly in classrooms and through other practices like counselling after sessional examination.
- As a part of Programme and Course Outcome, continuous efforts are made to inculcate such skills, awareness and sensitives among students as leadership qualities, personality development, critical thinking, digital literacy, multiculturalism, teamwork, community involvement, behavioural re-modelling, national duty and so on.
- Students are informed about career opportunities in their selected programme and courses. Special thrust is given to develop employability skills among the students by continuously creating awareness through departmental counselling, Career Counselling and Guidance Cell conducted programmes, IQAC initiatives and providing exposure to students of other colleges in the form of Student-Faculty exchange under MoU.
- Students are advised continuously by the department to improve their knowledge, communication skill and results.
- Students are constantly supervised and counselled by the teachers to benefit themselves for pursuing higher education through continuous enhancement of knowledge and communication skills.
- Actively engage students in various programmes organized particularly by the Career Counselling and Guidance Cell and the IQAC.

- Students of the department are encouraged and prepared to appear in various competitive examinations like APSC, TET, PET, SSC, UPSC, etc.
- Students of the department are continuously given counselling for Higher Studies, entrepreneurial activity, and knowledge enhancement in compliance with Programme and Course outcome.
- Students are regularly imparted counselling for understanding the significance of traditional Indian knowledge, soft skill, environmental challenges, biodiversity conservation, sustainable growth, gender equality, human rights, research on indigenous issues and value-based education as envisaged in the affiliating university provided syllabi and NEP 2020.
- Students are continuously encouraged to inculcate ethics and impart holistic development through constant practices of prayer, yoga, etc.
- Engaged students in extension activities carried out by NSS, IQAC and cells/committees.
- Add-on Courses have been introduced for imparting skill. Benefits of the courses are explained to students.
- For the outgoing students, the outcome of the offered programmes, their future employment possibilities and higher studies benefits are explained again and stressed upon in farewell meeting.
