

The department has integrated Gender issues in curricular and co-curricular areas for an equitable society. A detailed account of gender issues addressed in curricular and co-curricular issues is provided here:

Gender Issues

1. Classroom transaction of courses under CBCS (2019) and NEP 2020 like Women's Writing (C-11, English Honours), Literary Theory (DSE 5, English Honours), etc.
2. Maintenance of gender equity in curricular and co-curricular aspects through representation in different bodies including Union Bodies, governing bodies and committees/cells.
3. Promoted gender parity in the sports arena by providing equal opportunities to female students of different departments. Teams/individuals in areas of Kho-Kho, Football, Boxing, etc. have been raised and sent to different places.
4. Engaging and associating with Women Cell in organizing awareness programmes on International Women's Day at adopted villages, college campuses and nearby schools/villages and on different other occasions.
5. Classroom transaction on gender equality and representation has been implemented in cultural, extension and other co-curricular programmes by ensuring the participation of girl students.
6. Dr. Gayatree Bora bears the role of the Convenor of Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee. Under this committee, awareness and counselling programmes are conducted inside the campus and adjacent schools.
