Gender Policy

The college is dedicated to providing a sensitive approach to gender-related issues and fostering an environment that is gender-neutral, and equitable for everyone. The institution strives to uphold women's rights in accordance with the Indian Constitution's gender equality concept and encourages women's empowerment inside and outside the campus. The gender policy of the college is designed with this objective in consideration:

1. The institution must make sure that its gender sensitisation programs cover all academic students, faculty members across all disciplines, staff members, and the administration.
2. The establishment of the College Women Cell aims to promote a peaceful environment inside the organisation and provide women with the confidence and dignity to pursue their careers. Regularly scheduled lectures and discussions on gender issues should address delicate gender-related topics. Qualified consultants should also be invited to provide counselling and assistance.
3. In order to maintain equity, the college must make sure that there are enough female employees involved in institutional planning and decision-making. Additionally, it is important to promote the presence of female staff members in all areas as this will provide the female students a sense of confidence and security.
4. The institution aspires to protect the rights and well-being of all women on campus, including teachers, support staff, administrators, stakeholders, and visitors.

5. The college has to offer an environment devoid of any sort of harassment ensuring ability to leave, work and study with equality and dignity.
6. The college works to eliminate all forms of discrimination and provide everyone with equal opportunities.
7. Various forms of injustices should be resolved by creating an approachable Grievance Redressal Cell in an impartial and proactive way.
8. Complaints related to sexual- harassment must be reported immediately to Anti-Harassment Cell. Signboards and posters for prevention of eve-teasing and guidelines related to sexual harassment along with helpline numbers are to be fixed at focal locations in the college premises.
9. Gender justice must be promoted by the college by conducting a gender audit.
10. Several institutional units, such as the IQAC, the anti-ragging cell, the grievance redressal cell, etc., should be involved in raising awareness of gender equality and sensitivity.
11. Gender Audit has to be conducted in the institution for ensuring gender justice and equity.

Anti - Harassment Policy

The college attempts to foster an atmosphere free from harassment of any kind and promote appropriate behaviour and mutual respect among the individuals involved. Several provisions and institutional initiatives have been made for a congenial and harassment free ambience:

1. The institution strictly prohibits discrimination, harassment including sexual/ gender harassment, sexual assault and retaliation against all the stakeholders in the college campus.
2. The institution has constituted a committee as per the directives of Sexual Harassment of women at workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013.
3. To ensure a harassment free and gender equity ambience, sensitizing sessions and counselling are provided to students to raise their awareness of sexual and gender-based violence, its repercussions, and legal provisions.
4. The anti-harassment committee is entrusted the responsibility to take stock of the situation and must notify right away of any incident in which a stakeholder experiences or witnesses' harassment of any type because of his or her sex or gender.

Anti- Ragging Policy

As per UGC regulations on curbing the hazard of ragging in higher educational institutions, 2009, the college is committed to keep the campus ragging free. The college campus strictly adheres to the anti -ragging policy of its own for zero tolerance towards ragging:

1. According to the UGC Ragging Regulation of 2009 as well as the state and central government guidelines, anti-ragging undertakings from parents and students must be obtained at the time of admission, alerting them to the repercussions of breaking the rule.
2. All the provisions of the Central and the State government statutes must be strictly adhered to, as ragging is a crime that merits legal action.
3. An Anti-ragging Cell is constituted which will operate under the direction of the Principal.
4. Strict supervision on student activities during the admission period and at the beginning of the academic year is to be maintained.
5. Upon receiving a complaint of ragging from the anti-ragging cell, the institution is required to handle the matter seriously by adhering to existing UGC regulations. This may involve notifying and registering the incident with the nearest police station.

6. Teachers should be instructed to look for signs of strain and stress in order to spot possible offenders and vulnerable victims. Such situations should be reported to the college's Anti-ragging Cell so that a prompt resolution may be found.
7. It is necessary to identify the areas on college campuses where there may be ragging and to maintain regular surveillance over those areas.
8. If necessary, trained counsellors or the Anti-ragging Cell will offer counselling services. The Principal of the college will receive their reports on a regular basis.
9. The college anti-ragging cell will notify the stakeholders on a regular basis upon obtaining any instructions, information, or court orders pertaining to ragging from the federal, state, UGC, or other sources.
10. The institution must take action to ensure that every student actively participates in cultural festivals and other academic events in order to automatically narrow the gap between seniors and juniors.
11. The college's anti-ragging policy should be made abundantly evident on both the website and campus as well as in the prospectus and other materials pertaining to admission.
12. If needed, the Anti-Ragging Cell will inform, interact, and consult parents about the rights and safety of their children. If necessary, special sessions may be held.
